EASTERN DATES TO AUGUST 13.

EASTERN STATES.

Massachusetts Politics.

BOSTON, August 12.—The Republican Executive Committee met to-day and voted not to assume the responsibility of changing the time, as fixed by the General Committee, of holding the State Convention, September 27th. The Committee decided to invite General Banks to preside at the Convention.

The Greenback Whangdoodle, Again.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, August 12.—General Thomas Ewing addressed a large meeting of the Democracy here last night, giving his views as to what shall be the new departure of Democrats on financial matters. Briefly, his basis for the financial policy is that the Government shall furnish all money for the people in an issue that shall be a legal tender equally with coin, except where contract expressly calls for specie; that this issue shall be employed to redeem five twenty bonds; that to prevent undue expansion, three per cent. bonds shall be issued into which legal tenders may be converted, which shall be exchanged at par for legal tenders. He claims, in behalf of this currency, that it will be a legal tender in every sense of the term, being receivable for taxes, imports and other duties; that it will be a staple currency, having this advantage over a currency redeemable in gold—since the latter is subject to variations on account of export of specie to meet foreign balances—that it will be at par, bonds being converted into currency to meet the demand of trade, and that it will establish a moderate and uniform rate of interest.

Prospects of the National Loan.

NEW YORK, August 11.—A meeting of bankers was held to-day to perfect arrangements to popularize the new five per cent. Government loan. Clews, Habracht & Co. of London, and Henry Clews & Co. of New York, are connected on equal terms with Jay Cooke & Co. in the combination formed for negotiating the balance of the new five per cent. loan. Arrangements are being made with the Treasury, by combinations, for the bonds taken by them. First instalment will be the designation by the Government for the redemption of interest, ceasing after ninety days' notice. The uncertainties that are thrown around the five twenties will, it is believed, result in their speedy conversion.

Another Riot Threatened in New York.

NEW YORK, August 11.—Statements are made that a general attack is to be made on the Italian procession on the 20th inst., but they are discredited in police circles. The assertion that an armed organization of Hibernians would interfere to prevent parade is also believed to have no foundation. The police authorities, however, though they do not anticipate a breach of the peace, will make all necessary arrangements for the preservation of order.

Railroad and Steamship Combination.

NEW YORK, August 12.—The Executive Committees of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Union Pacific Railroad met here yesterday and made a contract by which the rates for both freight and passengers will be advanced.

Notice to the Tammany Thieves.

NEW YORK, August 11.—John Foley, in behalf of the Ottsical Association Meeting, has addressed a letter to the Mayor, saying that faithful copies of the city and county pay rolls is demanded, showing to whom and what payments have been made; also, bills showing the accounts against the city with the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors, furnishing the particulars in these respects, together with a transcript of the Controller's books as the payments were made by him. If the Mayor fails to disprove the charges against him, he must at once vacate his office. The letter contains the names of many prominent merchants and brokers.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Russian Minister.

NEW YORK, August 12.—A Washington special says Secretary Fish, on June 15th, instructed Minister Curtin to refuse (request?) the Russian Government to recall Minister Catacazy on account of his provarications in official transactions, and that Curtin has replied that the Russian Government will recall him and designate Bodisco, Russian Consul General at New York, to take his place.

Appointment.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Wm. H. Presbury of California, who for the past two years has been in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, has been appointed Journal and Minute Clerk of the Senate, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. C. Burch.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

French Affairs.

PARIS, August 12.—The Council voted for the 350,000,000 loan.

It is said there is a growing opposition to Thiers' prolongation of power.

The Paris Council begs Thiers to remove the capital. He replies that his determination must be untrammeled.

Bismarck decides that the Alsace school administration must henceforth be unsectarian.

It is said that Thiers urges upon the Military Committee of the Assembly the necessity of having large armaments and a normal effective force of five hundred thousand men in the army.

It is expected that the budget statements will probably be delayed some months.

Ex Queen Isabella, of Spain, has arrived at Tronville-sur-Mer.

All German Troops to be Withdrawn from France.

PARIS, August 11.—It is reported that negotiations between Berlin and Versailles (for the evacuation of France) have resulted in an agreement by which the occupation of French territory by Germans will entirely cease before the end of the present year.

Intelligence from Rome.

NEW YORK, August 12.—A Herald's Rome letter contains information that the Pope has selected the Island of Corsica as the place of future retreat, but it is thought that any determination on his part to leave Rome has not yet been made apparent, and that Cardinal Antonelli has had a chateau at Corneliano placed at the disposal of the Holy Father, which is being extensively fitted up for his reception.

The publication of the Pope's letter against revolutionary journals has diminished the sale of those sheets one-half, and their total disappearance at this rate will only take a short time. Notwithstanding this result, the revolutionists are at work with newspaper organs, and a new journal, entitled Luther, has been projected, which is aimed at the destruction of the Pope.

The Pope in replying to a deputation of Romans, who presented him with contributions of Peter's pence, said that while relying little on the prophesies contained in the book, yet it was written that the time would come when the Holy See would be forced to live on the charities of the whole world, but that he would never want for money.

Cholera in Germany.

BERLIN, August 12.—The authorities have taken stringent anti cholera measures. Twenty-three persons were attacked at Konigsberg yesterday, and thirteen died. No cholera has appeared yet in Southern Russia.

The Treaty Stipulations between England and the United States.

LONDON, August 11.—Russell's name appears in the Gazette this evening as the Commissioner for Great Britain under the treaty of Washington.

In the House of Commons to day Disraeli questioned the right of the United States to maintain its demand for indemnity for damages caused by the Alabama, now that the American Government had granted amnesty to the rebels and reconciliation with the South was complete. He asked whether the Government intended to bring this point to the attention of the arbitrators at Geneva, and proceeded to argue the question at great length.

Granville replied that the question of liability for the depredations of the Alabama would be argued in all its bearings before the arbitrators, by Sir Roundell Palmer and other eminent counsel, retained on the part of Great Britain, whose interests would certainly not suffer for lack of able and learned defenders.

Miscellaneous European News.

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—The Reichsrath and Provincial Diet have been dissolved.

LONDON, August 11.—The Post attributes political significance of a friendly character to the meeting between the Emperors of Germany and Austria.

BERLIN, August 11.—The Emperor of Austria received Emperor William at Wells to-day. Cordial feelings were exchanged, and their Majesties departed this evening in a special train for Ischel.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—The first consignment of manufactured silk from the California Silk Manufactory for sale, was received yesterday.

The schooner Nautilus, which sailed to-day for Tahait, carried $26,000 in United States silver coin, sent out for circulation—that being the standard there.

A private dispatch from Washington says, instructions from the General Land Office, contrary to those received here three weeks ago, have been sent here in the matter of the swamp lands claimed under the location laws of 1871. It is alleged that Senator Stewart is acting for the interest of railroad combinations, and has obtained this change in the instructions. The precise nature of the change is not known, but it is understood to operate against the swamp land claimants.

NEVADA.

Death at Reno.

RENO, August 12.—George Mating, one of the boy horse thieves at Surprise Valley, died at the hospital. The first seventeen hours after stealing the stock, himself and companion rode ninety miles and made the distance of two hundred miles to this city in two and a half days. His death was undoubtedly caused by over-exertion and excitement during the trip.

Dispatch from Winnemucca.

WINNEMUCCA, August 12.—The skeleton of a human being was found about a mile and a half above this place yesterday in an advanced state of decomposition. It is supposed to be the remains of a man who disappeared about ten months ago. Nothing was found that would indicate the cause of his death, or lead to any identification.

An Indian known here as Captain Jim, who can speak good English, says the Piute chiefs have held a council, and decided to make war against the Shoshone tribe. As the law prohibits the sale of fire arms to Indians in this State, they propose sending one of their number to California, in hopes to get guns and ammunition there. The immediate cause of the trouble is a dispute as to the loyalty of the boundary line between the two tribes.

ARIZONA.

Miscellaneous News.

LOS ANGELES, August 12.—The Arizona Miner contains the following: Gov. Sanford with a company of forty miners, has gone on a prospecting tour to the rich mineral district of the Pinal district, Eastern Arizona, carrying the war to the heart of the Apache country.

The present summer is the driest and hottest ever known in Arizona. A number of deaths have occurred from over exposure.

CURRENT NOTES.

The manufactures of lime at the new kilns at Mount Diablo is 200 barrels per day. The reign of Santa Cruz as lime king is at an end.

The New York papers generally have come to the support of the Times against the corrupt city government. The Evening Post disapproves in the strongest terms of the appeal of the Mayor and Controller to the Chamber of Commerce, which it says is mere bidding, and to which the Chamber cannot in common prudence listen.

The New York Tribune publishes the papers filed by Andrew J. Garvey in a suit against New York city for a claim amounting to $169,034 for "repairs on the new Court House." Garvey is the man to whom several millions were fraudulently paid by the Tammany gang for these "repairs," and now it appears he has a suit for more.

On the 30th July a terrible affair took place in Shelby county, Indiana. Henry Elkington, for some time an unsuccessful suitor of Miss Lizzie Smith, on Sunday made a final proposal for her hand, and being rejected, attacked her, throwing her to the ground and stamping upon her. He then took a brick and beat her head and face in a shocking manner, severing one ear and breaking her jaw. He fled to the woods, leaving her for dead. An alarm was raised and he was pursued and caught by the neighbors. He is now in jail. Miss Smith was alone when the attack was made, her parents being at church. She is still alive, but her recovery is impossible. Elkington says he is only sorry that he did not make sure work of his victim. It is feared that he will be lynched.

The New York World publishes a Munich letter of July 7th, containing an interview with Dr. Dollinger. The Doctor said: "Tell the Americans I am a Catholic still, and hope to die a Catholic. Nothing would grieve me more than a schism in the church." Of his reported change to Protestantism he said: "I have no ambition to play the part of Luther. No Catherine Bora is luring me away. I can have no sympathy with Protestantism." He denies that there is any schism in the church, declares the dogma of infallibility accordingly to accord to the Pope omnipotent power, spiritually, and from the interpretation given it which he made his power virtually supreme in worldly matters, and he says, in his opposition to infallibility, that he harmonizes in action with no distinct body, and that while there is a large body adhering to the movement, they have nothing in common with him, as they seek the overthrow of the Catholic religion, which he only seeks to save from error.

PERSONAL NOTES.

E. M. Waite has obtained the contract for printing for the State Agricultural Society.

A man named Fullerton, of Canyonville, Douglas county, lost an arm by a reaping machine last week.

Judge Douthitt of Clarke county, W. T., has disposed of his property there and will remove to Salem.

It is stated that Jacob Fournais, who died at Kansas City, Missouri, last month at the age of 134 years accompanied Lewis and Clarke in their expedition to Oregon in 1804-7. He was then 65 years old.

The Farmer has authority for announcing that Col. David Taggart, now of the U. S. Army, and late President of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society, has accepted the invitation tendered him to deliver the Annual Address at the State Fair.

The editorial correspondent of the Eugene Journal at Washington states that Mrs. Senator Williams will remain at Washington this summer. He adds: Mrs. Williams is under treatment for what was supposed to be dyspepsia, but which the physicians now say is unpalment of a much more serious character, and they have decided she cannot make the journey home at present.

THE TERRITORIES.

The fire at Idaho City, on Sunday, the 6th inst., began in a carpenter's shop in the rear of Dr. Zipp's drug store. One third of the buildings in the town were consumed.

The Port Townsend Message, of the 8th inst., contains an announcement of its future "change of base." The paper of that date is the last Message. The office is to be removed to Olympia and a paper published daily and weekly called the Puget Sound Courier.

The Olympia Tribune says that the Indian policy in Washington Territory is not successful. The agents, it says, are all good men, but the change by which the affairs of the Indian reservations have been placed in the hands of the religious sects has not produced good results in that Territory.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Emperor of Brazil.

NEW YORK, August 12.—The World's correspondent has interviewed the Emperor of Brazil in London, and writes that His Majesty confessed to feelings of perplexity at the state of things in England as regards the condition in which he found the poorer classes of the people. The climate seemed to be one of the worst features of the country. He was making observations for the benefit of his Empire, and would probably visit the United States when he finished his European tour.

The U. S. Loan in London.

LONDON, August 12.—The Times' money article to day states that the amount of the funded United States loan taken by bankers here will be offered to the public next week by Jay Cooke, McCulloch & Co.

The Evangelical Alliance.

NEW YORK, August 12.—The religious denominations which, under the name of the Evangelical Alliance were to have held a general convocation here last year, but which the European war then prevented, have decided, at meetings lately assembled in London, to come together in this city in 1873, the excitements of the Presidential elections making that year prejudicial to 1872.

French Affairs.

PARIS, August 12.—In the Assembly to-day Monti, of the left centre, moved that the title of President of the Republic be changed, and that all powers which he has heretofore exercised as Chief Executive be prolonged for a period of three years; that he, moreover, act—as with the promulgation and execution of the laws; that he be authorized to receive Ambassadors; that his official residence be at the place where the Assembly may sit; that he be lodged at the expense of the Republic; that his remuneration be fixed at a later date; that he shall have the right to appoint members of Council, and Ministers appointed by him shall be responsible for their acts to the Assembly. The extreme right made a counter motion expressing confidence in Thiers and confirming his present powers. Thiers, who was present, asked a vote of urgency of both propositions. A clear and great excitement they were declared urgent.

The Court Martial holds long and exciting sessions daily and the trial of leading Communists is progressing as rapidly as possible.

Rifles cut by the insurgents continue to rage.

Peace at Londonderry.

DUBLIN, August 12.—At Londonderry to day the Orangemen had a terrible collision with the police and military authorities in connection with an attempt to celebrate by procession the anniversary of the siege of that city in 1689, which had been prohibited by Government. Processionists came out to the number of several hundred, but the police quickly dispersed them. The police were attacked and the military had to be called out to quiet the disturbance. A number of persons were wounded. The police made many arrests.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

The American Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—The commission of Charles Francis Adams was signed by the Secretary of State at Long Branch and will be forwarded.

The English Arbitrator.

LONDON, August 12.—The reported appointment of Lord Chief Justice Cockburn as English Arbitrator under the Treaty of Washington is confirmed. The Lord Chancellor will present the case of Great Britain drafted by Lord Tenterden, Professors Montague and Barnard. Sir Roundell Palmer will act as counsel for Great Britain before the Board.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—The city is painfully quiet; not an arrest above the grade of drunk to-day; no accidents nor excitement of any kind.

Notwithstanding the prevailing dullness in real estate, it is believed there will be active competition for new City Hall lot on Yerba Buena plaza, as it is known that several Eastern parties are here prepared to invest.

John Henry Ridley, long an attaché of the press of California, is in South Africa selling a book on African diamond fields.

Steamer Japan, from China, is telegraphed.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Dispatch from Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, August 12.—A complimentary party tendered by citizens will be given to Pioneer Hall Monday night to Charles Crocker, on the occasion of his intended departure to Europe. His energy and arduous services in behalf of the great corporation in which he has been one of the most effective officers, are entitled to a recess from labor, and his private merits as a citizen to the proffered honor.

Five hundred employees of the C. P. R. R. Co. will make an excursion to the summit to-morrow.

At an election held last evening by the Sacramento Hussars the following officers were elected: Captain, Frank Ebner; 1st Lieut., Augustus Heilbrun; 2d Lieut., Charles Sallinger, Jr.; 3d Lieut., W. H. Bartels; Chairman, Geo. W. Dorman; Clerk, Gustavus Gotthold; Treasurer, C. F. Wagenhorst. The company is composed of the most influential citizens of German nationality. After business was concluded and while engaged in social enjoyment, a vote was taken on the Gubernatorial question with the following result: For Booth, 35; for Haight, none. Only those entitled to a vote expressed preference.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1871.

The Council at Umatilla.

The result of the council held with the Indians of Umatilla Reservation last week we have not learned, but from a person who was present at the council for two days we have information that the Indians were much disinclined to treat for the relinquishment of their lands. All the influential men of the tribes indicated their dissent from the proposition to sell the reserve and remove to some other locality. Some of them were very positive and decided in their refusal; others treated the proposition with grave deliberation and said they would take time to think of it, but their reluctance to part with their lands was very manifest. It was proposed to them that they should be settled as comfortably elsewhere, and receive the entire proceeds of the sales of the Umatilla reservation lands. Some of those who spoke treated the propositions in a very sensible way. The money they would receive, they thought, would do them little or no good. It would soon be gone, and the spending of it might be an injury to their people instead of bringing them any benefits. Besides, if they should consent to move, now, in all probability they would be called on in a very few years to move again. The whites, they said, were rapidly taking possession of all parts of the country, and it was plain they wanted it all and were unwilling that the Indians should keep any. They demanded Walla Walla valley and they obtained it. They wanted Grand Ronde valley and took it. Now they had come to demand the lands which had been set apart at Umatilla for the Indians, and which had been promised to them forever. Some years ago they (the Indians) were promised so much money as three mules could carry, in case they would accept the Umatilla Reservation. That money they had not received, and they supposed their white brethren had forgotten it. Also, they were promised good houses for every family, but it appeared that promise had been forgotten too. Commissioner Brunot and Superintendent Meacham talked kindly and assured them that no advantage would be taken of them, and that they would not be removed except through an agreement that was perfectly satisfactory to all concerned. Much intelligence was manifested by the Indians, and they are clearly in the right in their views of the undesirability of quitting the lands which have been given them. We cannot but respect their desire to remain, however advantageous to the State it would be to relinquish the Indian title to so fine a body of land and throw it open to the whites for settlement. It may be that the reluctance of the Indians was finally overcome, but at the time our informant left their determination to move seemed to be quite invincible.

There is high poetical authority for the opinion that it is shameful for children of the same family to fall out and rage and fight. Also, that such conduct is an unhappy and shameful contrast with the example of the birds, who in build peaceagree. But there is some degeneration this new departure which is continually stirring up strife in the Democratic family. Here again comes the Eugene Guard on the war path, with uplifted tomahawk against the Herald. The Guard repels the Herald's claim that John Quincy Adams is a Democrat whose opinions are to be followed, says that Thomas A. Hendricks, "conceiving that he has deserted, will probably never be President," and declares that "by vague, foggy and non-committal generalities office-hunting politicians and political Judases are seeking to betray the Democratic party into the hands of its foes." It warns Democrats to beware of Slavick, including, we suppose, the Herald, and adds: "They will sell you for half the sum that Judas got for his treason, and take their pay in canceled whisky stamps." This motive leads us to fear that "Democratic principles" are in a somewhat unsettled and even precarious condition, just now.

An article in the Cincinnati Gazette recalls to mind the changes that have been wrought within the past decade. It is ten years since we were suffering all the humiliation and agony which followed the first overwhelming defeat of the war at Bull Run. The grand army whose advance guard had so recently crossed the long bridge freighted with our high hopes and proud confidence, had been routed, and most of us thought that the Secessionists, as we called them then, would at once be recognized by the powerful Napoleon and the mighty England. And now, the dictator of Europe is an exile, France has just been lifted from the tortures rack, and England is treading in the footsteps of our Alabama claims. Ten years ago we lay, defiant but weak and trembling, at the feet of Europe. Ten years, mostly of Republican rule, and we are the peer of any nation on the globe. Is it worth while going back to our old Democratic standard?

Mr. B. F. Brown, broker and telegraph agent at Salem, has written a note which finds its way into the Herald, to the effect that he always transmits Bill Watkinds' telegraphic dispatches, and that he receives State warrants in payment therefor. It appears, therefore, that our information on this point was erroneous. Mr. Brown appears not to be so averse to "equitable adjustment" doctrines as our informant supposed. Of course he will, like a prudent man, prepare himself for having these new warrants "scaled" or repudiated by the next Legislature, and will be too sensible and philosophical to complain about it when it is done, as it is something which he has every reason to expect.

The Oregon Herald is accordingly restive under the damaging exposures of the robbers perpetrated by the Tammany gang. Recognizing the fact that these rascals and robbers are the controlling power of the Democratic party, and that the party will be held responsible for the acts of those whom it has accepted as its leaders, the Herald wants everybody to forget recent revelations and quit talking about them. It admits the robberies, indeed, but attempts to shelter the thieves behind the old Board of Supervisors. But it is remembered that the Democrats had a controlling majority in that Board, and that "Boss" Tweed was the leader of the political majority. So the defense fails.

The Democratic papers are having much to say in a loose and general way about "thefts" alleged to have been committed by Woods and May. We repeat our demand for proof of these indirect accusations. We may say, however, that if they should prove all their charges to be true, the thefts alleged would not amount to one-tenth of the sum filched from the people through the various schemes of legalized robbery authorized by the late Democratic Legislature, for the benefit of Democratic officials, favorites and partisans.

Irresponsible Charges.

A correspondent of the Herald who signs himself "Romulus" makes accusations against S. E. May, late Secretary of State. We copy them below. But we must observe here that these accusations are not proofs. "Romulus" writes under cover of a feigned name, and until he gives his real name the charges which he brings can have no weight. The statements he puts forth are vouched for by no authority, and cannot but be treated as irresponsible. The only Romulus we know of was a noted citizen of Rome, and he himself perpetrated a more scandalous robbery than any committed in modern times, when he seized and carried into captivity the wives and daughters of the Sabines. This Romulus would hardly be a good authority in the matter now before us. What is demanded in this case is a statement of fact, given with fullness and precision, and accompanied by a responsible name. Let this be done, and in case any "stealing" shall be traced to the last State administration we promise again to do our full share to hunt down and bring to justice the perpetrators of it. Here are the statements made by the Herald's nameless correspondent:

Sam May has stolen and embezzled money belonging to the school fund, thus taking the means of education from the rising generation of the poor men of Oregon, in order that he might support himself in regal splendor, and lord it over the hardy sons of our young and rising State.

A gentleman in Lane county, in 1868, sent Sam May $280 for school lands, he being a member of the Board for the investment and management of the Common School Fund. One hundred and ninety-seven dollars was sent him from Jackson county, and about $150 from Polk, by a farmer, not one dollar of which was ever turned over to the School Fund, but was kept by him. These are only a few of his many delinquencies in the School Fund business.

He sold, while in office, over six hundred statutes, at $6 a piece, making upwards of $3,600, and a great many copies of the laws of 1865-66 and '68 were also disposed of at about $2.50 per volume, amounting to another thousand or more, making the total amount received by him for laws about $5,000, not one dollar of which ever found its way into the Treasury of the State of Oregon.

The Statute provides that when a person is sent to the Insane Asylum who has means, or whose friends or relations are able to pay the expenses to the State while he remains in the Asylum, shall, through the County Judge of the county, pay to the Secretary of State, every two months, the amount of cost of keeping such patient, and the Secretary is to pay the same over to the Treasurer of State.

Sam May kept accounts from 1863 to 1864, of money paid by relatives of the insane to him, but since that time nothing appears on the books showing the receipt of money. During this period he received thousands of dollars. The people of one county, through their County Judge, having paid him $2,500 as part of the cost of keeping their insane patients.

The New Departure.—The Memphis Appeal encourages the Bourbons of Tennessee with a spirited poem in opposition to the new departure. The following is the verse:

When you see a little fellow mortal,
Without fixed and fearless views,
Hedging on the skirts of others,
Waiting to hitch out of shoes,
Bowing low to wealth or favor,
With abject, uncovered head,
Ready to retract or waver,
Willing to be led or led,
Walk yourself with firmer bearing,
Throw your moral shoulders back,
Show your spine has nerve enough to carry—
Put the thing which fits most tack.

Under President Grant the public debt has been reduced by the sum of $242,134,102 03, or nearly eight million dollars for each and every month since Grant became President. During the same space of time the Democratic rulers of New York have added $50,000,000 to the debt of that city.

Montana elects for the first time a Republican delegate to Congress. There is tribulation for the Democracy all round. Listen for the thunder next month from California!

There is one more truth connected with this star heat which is worthy of notice. The rays which shine by the reflection only from kindred bodies impart no heat. The moon, which does so brilliant a work in her way, does not warm. The star suns derive their light from the great original, and hence they diffuse warmth with their rays. Some observe in them, it is to be feared, obtain all their illuminating power from their spiritual surroundings. They sparkle like icicles, but chill all who come in contact with them. That strange and glorious warming in the region of the heart which Wesley felt when the way of salvation by faith alone first beamed upon his burdened mind, they do not feel.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TEANEYS PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORTEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a time now swelling gave out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Oak Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and the sore on my shoulder has entirely disappeared and I use my hands and am far better than I have been for years.

WOMAN'S TRUE FRIEND!

AYERS' PATENT COMBINED

FLUTING & SMOOTHING FLAT-IRON

Patented March, 1871.

THE MOST USEFUL INVENTION OF THE AGE!

THE ONLY PATENT FLUTING AND SMOOTHing Iron ever offered to the public, and pronounced by the Press perfection itself.

Adopted by all Housekeepers on its own merits, as the cheapest and most perfect household article yet devised.

Advantages over all others—DREADNESS SIMPLICITY! DURABILITY! Requires no labor to adjust it for Fluting or Ruffling, as is the case with expensive crank machines; the iron is heated in the ordinary manner as for plain smoothing. When desiring to FLUTE or RUFFLE, draw back the latch and it is ready for its work; this simple movement is all that is required. Its entire simplicity is one of its many merits.

It will not singe the finest fabric. It will not rust or destroy your clothes. It is great saver of Time and Money. It is the only Iron with a "Rolling Motion." Its Fluting surfaces are of Polished Brass. No home can afford to be without one.

AYERS' COMBINED FLUTING AND SMOOTHING FLAT-IRONS have earned for themselves a popularity which has never been attained by any Fluting Machine. People go into contortions over the results accomplished by our Irons, and the longer they are used the more highly do they value them, and no wonder, when we consider that our Combined Fluting and Smoothing Flat-Irons, which are no trouble whatever to use, and which do plain ironing as well as Fluting and Ruffling, costs only the very small sum of $2 75 each.

These Irons are for sale only by our Canvassing Agents.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure leads, and covers one fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard, with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials:

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT."

CITY.

BODY OF A DROWNED MAN FOUND.—Yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, the body of a man was found floating in the river, near the bark Skiddaw, at the Clinton Point wharf. Coroner T. J. Dryer being notified of the fact went over, and had in his direction the body was lifted out upon the wharf, near the ferry pontoon, where he proceeded to hold an inquest. The following jurors were summoned: L. Belyea, J. W. Baldwin, M. Smith, H. H. Richmond, D. W. Ferary and Chas. McCrimmon. The following facts were elicited: The body had on no clothing but a pair of drawers and a navy blouse. There was tied around the waist a bit of line twelve or fifteen feet long, the other end being attached to a clothing sack weighing nearly 200 pounds. This sack had on one side the number "24," and on the reverse side the number "80." It contained the clothing and traps of a U. S. marine. Among other things there was a pocketbook containing a lot of photographs and papers. One of these was a regular discharge of Henry Lang, a Prussian, as a sergeant, from Capt. McNeight's Co. A

Two Weeks.

BY DELTHA LIBBY SCRANTON.

She held him in her arms, brown arms,
His baby face lay down beside—
His red lips smiling daintily—
His dark eyes, started, opened wide.
So like a little-horn fair Rebekah,
In regal state he lay beside,
His mother, but a gipsy tramp,
That by the village fountain stood.

My lady's carriage stayed so close
To Cobb's fair door, the girl's dark hair,
Who frowning touched its coat of arms
And pondered o'er man standing there.
A passion kindled in her eyes,
She wooed his proclamation with fire;
Why one should be, and starve, and steal,
And one should ride through life in state.

My lady's children took up
With night rare wonder in his face,
And poverty, nor dust, nor soil,
Could hide his beauty and his grace.
My lady clenched her fingers close
Above her bosom's bitterness,
Where once a mother's heart had been,
And now was hopeless agony.

What story of a broken truth,
Of sorrow, shame and—sin, days,
Was here, who stood beside his well,
With anger in her bitter gaze?
God knows, not I. Unequal fate
Bestowed gold and scorn, heart wild!
My lady's son would yield them all,
For this one gift, the gipsy's child!

Courier Democrat.

POLITICAL NOTES.

There is a row among the Democrats of Sacramento, and independent candidates have been put forward against the regular ticket.

It is stated that Tammany, or chief, have called the leaders of the Irish Democracy of New York together and told them they must stop the people from willing and talking if they wish the party to remain in power.

This from the Chicago Republican is good: "A Democratic exchange rebukes the Republican for contemplating the Presidents for the Democracy." We beg to correct our contemporary. The making of a President for the Democracy is a task beyond the reach of human ability. The most we can do is to make a candidate; beyond the condition of candidacy no man is likely to get on the Democratic ticket during the present century.

New York papers state that the revelations of fraud in New York City have convinced the "Young Democracy of the necessity of uniting issue at once fr... A nasty gang, Hon. Dennis Dunne, ... of the Brooklyn Democracy, says, "If we vote the vest election ticket with the political and financial perfidies we will meet, and justly, with an overwhelming defeat. The Young Democracy must denounce them, put them to their political graves, and accept a platform of reform." It is stated on the other hand that Tammany is organizing with great vigor to put the dissentients down.

A New Orleans Sensation.

DEATH OF A MYSTERIOUS MAN WHO POSSESSED THE BOURBON DIADEM.

From the New Orleans Picayune, July 16.]

Few of the residents in the lower part of the city of late years but are familiar with some of the incidents we are now relating. The have often seen, in the twilight of summer evenings a singular apparition. Suddenly on the banquette of Musto street has appeared an old man, with long gray hair, and clad in the costume of half a century ago. The garments were faded and worn, but revealed a fineness which in other days was more fitted for a court than an American metropolis. He was a very tall man, although a hunch-back added to his deformity, would have been of gigantic proportions. In the width of shoulders, the deep-arched chest, and long nervous arms resided marvelous strength, while the lower limbs, fashioned in magnificent symmetry and beauty, arrested attention and commanded admiration wherever he appeared. He spoke to no one, but in silent abstraction passed his lonely walk far into the night. Years went by, but night after night little children passed him on their way to snatch the evening repast of the lowest grade. It must have been fifty years ago that a handsome man among us. He looked middle-aged then; but as the years flew by the sturdy frame remained flexible and active, but the hair grew gray, and his face was seamed with wrinkles.

He lived in a little brick building that set back from the street. Wild vines crept over the crumbling tiles, and wreathed fantastic shapes on the lehimney tops. In the yard [illegible] bloomed all the year round, and their rich perfume made the air sensuous and sweet. At a window, shaded by a trellis-work laid in the bloom at roses, the old man sat of afternoons and watched the sun's decline. No one else was ever seen in the house—no one else ever crossed the threshold and he lived on, a recluse, and old man, in a lonely house.

But one day, not a great while since, the neighbors saw that the blinds in the house were closed. The old man had not appeared on the street for weeks, and the grass had begun to grow from the chinks of the marble slabs, at his door and it began to be whispered about that the old man was dead.

At last, one day, the neighbors went in (they were poor people, for the building and stark on a pallet of straw. There were a few scattered chairs around the room, and a plain table. One object only arrested the eye. Near the body was a rich casket, set in modest of pearl and gold. Jewels flashed from the costly lid, and wreathed in the dust of diamonds were engraved the "lilies of France" in a coronet of gold. They opened the box, and there flashed on their eyes the Bourbon diadem. It was stolen on the night of the 10th of August, 1830, when Charles X. abdicated the throne of France in favor of the Duke of Bordeaux. Underneath it was a manuscript written in French. It contained only these words:

"I am indebted, to the Venetian General Maria of Savoy was to have been my wife; but he deserted me when I most needed his help and assistance. I revenged myself and procured his overthrow, and am happy since he died an exile."

This was all. Over his life silence now draws a veil. His wayward passions, his inward conflicts, none can estimate. Lonely and sad he perished in exile; none could appreciate his injuries; let none judge too harshly of his life.

A "Romance" from Yamhill.

The Salem Statesman relates the following. The man who got the girl will probably curse his folly before many weeks, and his wife will probably elope with a other fellow before the leaves fall:

A little matrimonial episode occurred over there the other day, which was decidedly amusing to those acquainted with the parties and circumstances. It seems that a sprightly young ... of Salem desired to ensnare into the meshes of matrimony one of the fair daughters of Yamhill, and the maiden, nothing loth, smiled upon him and his suit prospered. Everything went on smoothly till the wedding day arrived. When, lo! there appeared upon the scene another claimant for the lady's hand: one who hailed from the classic land of Tillamook, and who insisted upon the lady fulfilling an engagement made with him some months previous. Here was a dilemma; she liked them both; they were both handsome and brave, but which would she choose. A decision seemed impossible, till one, with the magnanimity of a hero, arose and withdrew from the contest, preferring to show the bitter end of disappointment himself, at Tillamook, rather than mar the happiness of those who had loved, not wisely, as he thought, but so well. The maiden thus relieved from the necessity of a decision, flew to the arms of her other lover, and the twain hastening to the county seat procured the necessary papers and were shortly one and indivisible.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, August 12, 1871.

Gold in New York 111¾.

H. M. Garibaldi, from Hong Kong, loaded principally with rice, is in the river.

Steamer Quiene Telfair cleared this evening for Victoria and Nanaimo, with full cargo of produce. She returns immediately, so as to have here on about Friday for Victoria and Sound ports.

In noticing the writings of the Commissioner of Statistics the types maliciously say in this morning's issue "assignment," when it should have been "assessment."

The crop of flax will be an average, as that sown last fall will be large, and that sown into this spring will be very light.

Advices from the interior into that harvesting is progressing rapidly. The yield in the counties on the west side of the river is better than on the east. In several localities the yield will be 40 bushels to the acre, but in others 20, and in the majority of cases less than 30. This yield is for winter wheat, as the late sown spring wheat will be very late. In conversation with several gentlemen who have opportunities of informing themselves as to the crop prospects, etc., by traveling through agricultural counties, we learn that the yield of wheat is estimated at 15 per cent. more than last year; and had it not been for the long spell of dry weather the yield would have been not less than 50 per cent. more. The quality of the wheat will compare favorably with former years. In several of the counties this year they are using headers and threshers more extensively than ever, and find that they are making their grain cheaper than ever before.

The amount of freight, principally produce, offering for Victoria to-day, surprised many. Although we were aware of several large orders awaiting filling, yet we were unprepared to see so much to ship. The steamer Quiene Telfair released freight early in the afternoon for Victoria, owing to being full. She took none whatever for Puget Sound. From what we can learn there is more than enough goods waiting shipment for Sound ports than she can carry in one trip, aside from that, refused for Victoria this trip, and to be shipped next trip. Very general complaint is expressed by merchants at the lack of transportation between Portland, Victoria and Sound ports, as it is calculated to drive trade from here, as merchants order only what is absolutely necessary, and if it cannot be shipped from place ordered then they will order from where goods can be sent. Our merchants say if one steamer cannot take all that is offered for Victoria and Sound ports, then another should be put on.

The amount of flour made in this State in comparison with the number of inhabitants has been a source of surprise to millers in other States. One of the chief reasons why so much flour has been made was the lack of inland transportation at cheap rates, working a great detriment to the shipping of wheat, and consequently producers were forced to sell to millers or else have the wheat remain in bins and sacked at their own risk. But now we have an outlet for flour, preferring to dispose of the wheat. The number of mills, as near as we can learn, in Oregon, are as follows:

Baker county	1	Linn county	8
Benton "	4	Marion "	3
Clackamas "	9	Multnomah "	2
Columbia "	1	Polk "	3
Coos "	2	Tillamook "	2
Douglas "	6	Union "	2
Grant "	1	Washington "	5
Jackson "	5	Wasco "	2
Josephine "	1	Yamhill "	9
Lane "	3

Making a total number of grist mills 77, with an aggregate number of stones estimated at 240, with a daily capacity of 5,600 bbls. There are 68 propelled by water and 9 by steam. The daily capacity is estimated in part, as there were a number of which millers were unable to obtain reliable information from, but we are convinced it will not vary 25 bbls either way, and if at all will be over rather than under. The total cost of these mills, including improvements added, is estimated at $1,450,000.

The amount of flour exported from

January 1st to date	to California	67,487 qrs sks.
" 1st	" Victoria	27,004 "
" 1st	" Brazil	21,745 "
" 1st	" Sandwich Islands	8,083 "
Total		625,267

The amount exported to Sitka and Puget Sound we are unable to give correctly, but it is estimated at 40,000 qr sacks.

In studying our prospective prices for staple articles we desire to consult the San Francisco importations, as also those East, as our prices are regulated by them. The competition between sail vessels, steamers and overland railroad, has reduced the tariff on the continental railroads so that merchants can buy to profit, and consequently their being shorter, the San Francisco market cannot at any time be advanced above ruling prices East, with freights added, and whether we can this above that of the San Francisco market. The imports of coffee—sugar and rice we have at hand for the year as follows: 1867, 5,420,000 lbs; 1868, 7,241,000 lbs; 1869, 4,197,000 lbs; 1870, 5,759,748 lbs; 1871, 7,533,744. Latest advices from the East inform us that this market was advancing under extensive telegrams from Rio Janeiro, advising of continued light shipments to United States ports. There has been several large shipments from San Francisco by the railroad East. On the 31st of August this district received from 1870 to Sept 30; since then the market has ruled lower than in previous days, and somewhat nominal and irregular. But now the market has advanced ½ @ ¾ cts, with a firm market at the advance, and with a tendency to further advance.

The following are the statistics of value of imports and exports into and from Portland, from October 1, 1870, to June 30th, 1870:

	Imports from other District's. Imp'ts direct.	Exports.
1870.
October	$4,305	$6 048	$33,712
November	12,022	42,022	53,120
December	25,725	65,852	39,220
1871.
January	29,353	2,020	102,542
February	12,172		11,603
March	83,754	1,264	49,166
April	1,414	3,798	41,918
May	3 089	891	34,742
June	48,218		27,549
Total imports	$220,014	$122,704	$360,650
Total exports			$483,018
			350,650
Excess in exports			$127,532

The tonnage of this District on the 30th of June, 1871, was 6 sails, 30 steam and 6 barg s; aggregating 3,328 tons. This has been increased since then to 9,295 tons.

Merchandise Reports.

BACON—The shipments to-day to Victoria amounted to 39,161 lbs. The market is very firm at 14c, with a tendency to advance.

BRAN—Sold to-day of 160 sks at $25 per ton. Shipped to Victoria 372 sks.

BOOTS—Price advanced to-day to 32@33c. We note sales in lots of 2,000 lbs. at 32c.

FLOUR—The Magnet mill, in Albany, has commenced running on new wheat. Meteress's mill, of this city, commenced on a small lot to-day. The amount shipped to-day, per Quiene Telfair, was 1,200 lbs. The present rate of freight for flour from the millers to sea is 75 cts at $6 ₱ bbl. Several orders were refused to-day for sacks by the agents of a standard brand at $50. We quote extra at $6 ₱ bbl, with a very strong tendency higher, and $5 40 for extra.

LARD—Market firm. We note sales to-day at 14½@15c in tins.

OILS—Market has settled, with prospects of no further decline in any description. The stock of China nut light, with 700 cases to arrive per Rescue and Gertrude. Quotable at $1@1 05 ₱ gallon.

WHEAT—Farmers are busily engaged harvesting, and consequently but little is coming in. Buyers have not fully determined upon what price to give. As it now is, shippers are buying blindly as present quotations for wheat cannot determine what will be the price six months hence, when wheat bought now would arrive. The price, as stated before by us, depends greatly upon the English crops, which will not be fully determined under three weeks yet. We hardly know what to quote the price at to-day, and consequently give none.
